If you are the importer of record, payment to the broker will not relieve you of liability for U.S. Customs charges (duties, taxes or other debts owed Customs) in the event the charges are not paid by the broker. Therefore, if you pay by check, Customs charges may be paid with a separate check payable to "U.S. Customs and Border Protection" which shall be delivered to Customs by the broker. Importers who wish to utilize this procedure must contact our office in advance to arrange timely receipt of duty checks. Additionally, the Automated Clearing House (ACH) is an electronic payment option that allows importers to demonstrate reasonable care with internal controls on financial transactions of importations into the United States. Please notify your Shapiro contact to ask about ACH direct payment options. (Revised March 2024)

2. Company as agent. The Company acts as the "agent" of the Customer for the purpose of performing duties in connection with the entry and release of goods, post entry services, the securing of export licenses, the filing of export and security documentation on behalf of the Customer and other dealings with Government Agencies, or for arranging for transportation services, both domestically and internationally, or other logistics services in any capacity other than as a carrier; as to all other services, Company acts as an independent contractor.

3. Limitation of Actions. (a) Unless subject to a specific statute or international convention, all claims against the Company for a potential or actual loss, must be made in writing and received by the Company, within ninety (90) days of the event giving rise to claim; the failure to give the Company timely notice shall be a complete defense to any suit or action commenced by Customer. Customer agrees that compliance assessment or audit activities performed by the Company may not be an event giving rise to a claim for purposes of any transaction.

(b) All suits against Company must be filed and properly served on Company as follows:

(c) Compliance assessments, audits, and other consulting services may uncover overpayments or underpayments of duties, taxes, fees, penalties or interest. Unless otherwise specifically agreed to, in writing, by both parties, Company shall not be responsible for (1) the payment or processing of payments of such additional duties, taxes, fees, penalties or interest; (2) the recovery and collection of any overpayment of duties, taxes, fees, penalties or interest; or (3) preparation and submission of documentation claiming preferential duty treatment or drawback.

(d) Company shall retain all intellectual property rights with respect to any works of authorship developed in connection to the performance of Consulting Services.

(e) The goal of some compliance assessment, audit and other consulting services and activities is to review past customs transactions for accuracy, and to uncover and correct errors regardless of their source. In order to facilitate complete and open consulting services, Customer agrees to hold Company harmless for any and all errors uncovered during the performance of consulting services, and for activities that may be required to correct those errors, including legal fees.

5. No Liability For The Selection or Services of Third Parties and/or Routes. Unless services are performed by persons or firms engaged pursuant to express written instructions from the Customer, Company shall use reasonable care in its selection of third parties, or in selecting the means, route and procedure to be followed in the handling, transportation, clearance and delivery of the shipment; advice by the Company that a particular person or firm has been selected to render services with respect to the goods, shall not be construed to mean that the Company warrants or represents that such person or firm will render such services nor does Company assume responsibility or liability for any actions(s) and/or inaction(s) of such third parties and/or its agents, and shall not be liable for any delay or loss of any kind, which occurs while a shipment is in the custody or control of a third party or the agent of a third party; all claims in connection with the Act of a third party shall be brought solely against such party and/or its agents; in connection with any such claim, the Company shall reasonably cooperate with the Customer, which shall be liable for any charges or costs incurred by the Company.

6. Quotations Not Binding. Quotations as to fees, rates of duty, freight charges, insurance premiums or other charges given by the Company to the Customer are for informational purposes only and are subject to change without notice; no quotation shall be binding upon the Company unless the Company in writing agrees to undertake the handling or transportation of the shipment at a specific rate or amount set forth in the quotation and payment arrangements are agreed to between the Company and the Customer.

(e) Customer acknowledges that, the performance of consulting services may require access, by the Company, to the Customer's records, including but not limited to applicable purchasing agreements, purchase orders, sales contracts and receipts, manufacturing and receiving records, payment documentation, and accounting ledgers, and that Customer has an affirmative duty to provide Company with access to required records.

8. Declaring Higher Value To Third Parties. Third parties to whom the goods are entrusted may limit liability for loss or damage; the Company will request excess valuation coverage only upon specific written instructions from the Customer, which must agree to pay any charges therefor; in the absence of written instructions or the refusal of the third party to agree to a higher declared value, at Company's discretion, the goods may be tendered to the third party, subject to the terms of the third party's limitations of liability and/or terms and conditions of service.

9. Insurance. Unless requested to do so in writing and confirmed to Customer in writing, Company is under no obligation to procure insurance on Customer's behalf; in all cases, Customer shall pay all premiums and costs in connection with procuring requested insurance.
